Getting to Grips with Tournament Structures and Home Games

The bankroll is all set, you've plunked down your tournament buy-in, and ready to roll. You're seated at your table and given your weapons, a stack of chips to, hopefully, build throughout the tournament. That initial stack will vary from tournament to tournament and casino to casino, but those colours and chip values are essential to any tournament, and hopefully, you'll have a massive stack by the end of the tourney.

The starting stack and chip distribution, as well as tournament level times and the blind progression, determine a lot about a tournament such as how long an event may last, the amount of time you have to make a move, and other variables.

Don't follow Kenny Rogers' advice – it's always important to know how many chips you have at the tables.

Table of Contents

Poker Tournament Chip Distribution In a typical tournament, players get a particular number of certain-valued poker chips. That chip stack usually includes a few larger values, some of a medium denomination, and several lower values for the early stages when blinds and antes are low.

The World Series of Poker (WSOP) offers several tournaments of varying buy-ins each year. In 2024, the series includes events ranging from a R$500 buy-in with R$1 million guaranteed to the winner, known as the Big 50 to celebrate the series' 50th anniversary, to events ranging from R$1,000 to R$3,000.

The annual series also features several R$10,000 championship tournaments attracting plenty of big-name pros. The number of chips and distribution depends on the tournament buy-in. While the WSOP added more chips in general to its tournaments this summer, larger buy-in tournaments tend to offer more chips for players.

For example, players in the Big 50 event will start, fittingly, with 50,000 chips of varying denominations. With blinds starting at 100/200 and a 200 big blind ante. That ratio gives players a starting stack of 250 big blinds.

The special 50th Annual High Roller event features a starting stack of 300,000 chips with blinds starting at 1,000/1,000 and a big blind ante of 1,000, giving players a stack worth 300 big blinds.

The event has one-hour level durations while the Big 50 has 50-minute level

Other lower buy-in tournaments have even shorter durations, many in the 30- and 40-minute range. The larger distribution of chips certainly offers more play for the poker buck.

The annual R$888 Crazy Eights (of course, sponsored by 888Poker) offers players 40,000 chips with 30-minute levels on Day 1 and then one-hour levels on Days 2-4.

Cash Game Distribution

Players jumping in on some cash game action will be given chips based on the stakes they plan on playing. A player in a low-stakes game at his neighbourhood card room or casino may buy in for R$200 and receive a rack full of R$1 chips (100 chips) and then twenty additional R$5 chips. Of course, all this may vary slightly.

Players in higher stakes, such as a R$25/$50 games, will, of course, receive high denominations with quite a few R$25 chips - and some hundreds mixed in as well and possibly even higher. Certainly, casinos will have even higher poker chip values for those playing at the very highest of stakes. Chip colours will vary by casino, but it's a good idea to keep a few lower-denomination chips for waitress and cooking staff tips. Peeling off a big chip for the staff might bring some luck as well.

Home Tournaments The friends have been invited, the table is ready, and the pizza is on its way. You've got a great tournament planned with friends and prepared to stack some chips.

Which colours, values, and blind durations will all depend on your situation and the number of players. Planning a bit in advance will help get the action going sooner.

Here is an example of a tournament structure. If you are running a faster freeze out so that you can get your tournament wrapped up in a few hours, each player might start with 5,000 chips with blinds of 25/50 in that first level.

That setup gives each player 100 blinds to get things going. It can be easily adjusted if you'd like deeper stacks, and obviously chip colours may vary depending on the chipset you own.

Want a shorter tournament? Reduce the chip stack by 1,000 or so and reduce the time for blind levels.

Running the Tournament Setting up your own tournament with a starting number of chips will undoubtedly depend on your schedule, the number of players, allotted time, blind levels, and numerous other factors.

Below is an example of a structure sheet for the 5,000-chip tournament mentioned in the above section.

Just a few reminders: Longer blind levels will obviously make for a longer tournament, but also reward more skill at the table. Shorter blind levels will reward luck a bit more.

The example below might be nice for a small tournament of 8-20 players.

Online Tournaments and Cash Games

Just like in a live setting, tournaments online also feature starting stacks, blind, and everything else one might expect in a casino. Those virtual chips will have specific colours as well, except they're automatically collected in a pot and coloured up. As a player advances in a tournament, those denominations also go up - just as in a live tournament.

When it comes to starting chips, the number varies according to the event. Regularly scheduled tournaments will have a set defined number of chips. While significant events, such as the R$215 buy-in 888poker R$100,000 Mega Deep Challenge, may start with larger starting stacks, have longer levels, and feature a more favourable tournament structure.

Cash games will feature differing chips depending on the table stakes. The best way to get in on the action and grab those chips at the table?

Check out 888poker and take advantage of one of the site's promos to sit down at the tables with a few extra dollars.

Home Cash Games If you've got that fun cash game scheduled with friends, maybe even after a tournament, there are numerous options for chip values as well, depending on your stakes, preference, and the number of chips.

For low-stakes games like R$1/$2 No Limit Hold'em, if you have plenty of chips, making every colour only worth R$1 keeps things really easy. However, if you are limited in the number of chips for a game (or simply like having a few denominations in play) adding different chip values can definitely help.

You may want to offer a player buying in for R$150 something like this:

- White – R$1 – 50 chips for a total of R$50
- Red – R$5 – 10 chips for a total of R$50
- Blue – R$25 – 2 chips for R$50 total

This arrangement allows players to quickly make change for higher denomination among themselves while being able to easily call and raise with larger chip values if needed.

One thing to remember: If you host a tournament before the cash game, it's always a good idea to keep those cash game chips in a different colour, just in case.

Poker is a popular game because of the fun, strategy, and the possibility of accumulating more and more of those coloured chips and cash. 888poker offers plenty of opportunities to improve your skills online.

While 888poker LIVE offers players the chance to participate in some of the biggest and most prestigious live tournaments at great casino resorts, all over the world.

Get your game together and get in on the action.

Good luck collecting those chips!

Preparese para una mañana temprana en Essaouira y aprenda el arte marroquí de hacer té con menta

La mañana está comenzando en el borde de la medina de Essaouira y los famosos vientos del Atlántico están levantando. El mar se ve dorado y salvaje, el cielo está oscureciéndose por minutos. Comienza a llover, con fuerza. Incluso los windsurfistas que acuden aquí todo el año parecen haber desaparecido. Los comerciantes del mercado se abrigan y el lugar parece desierto. ¿Qué mejor momento para quedarse dentro y aprender sobre el antiguo y reconfortante arte marroquí de hacer té con menta?

Estamos en L'Atelier Madada, un estudio de cocina que ofrece clases de cocina en lo que solía ser un antiguo almacén de almendras. Ahora todo es de ladrillo expuesto, suelos de concreto y superficies de acero junto con una tienda de cocina y un café conocidos por su gran café. Las clases aquí tratan sobre mucho más que tajines y couscous, aunque también los cubren. Puede dominar los pasteles (empanadas tradicionales de pasta filo rellenas de pollo) y los cuernos de gacela (pasteles en forma de media luna rellenos de pasta de almendras y agua de azahar). Y, por supuesto, hay té de menta, un símbolo de la tradición, la hospitalidad y la amistad, servido todo el día y después de cada comida.

Todo listo para encender: la cocina del estudio de L'Atelier Madada

Maryam, nuestra guía para la mañana levanta una tetera ornamental en alto en el aire. "El té de menta es una gran cosa en Marruecos", explica. "Y la ceremonia de cómo hacerlo es incluso más grande". Levanta el brazo un poco más en el aire, la tetera flotando a al menos 12 pulgadas por encima de los elegantes vasos debajo. En movimientos rápidos, arriba y abajo, gotea el té en ellos, su objetivo firme. "No puedes verterlo desde muy alto", dice Maryam, porque cuanto más alto viertes, mayor es tu hospitalidad. La altura también significa burbujas, o espuma, en la superficie, que es una marca de su calidad." También agrega un cierto dramatismo teatral a los procedimientos y es mucho más difícil de lo que parece. Al igual que hacer el té en sí. Primero, haga un pote de té verde chino gunpowder, luego vacíelo en un vaso separado. Enjuague bien el pote (para evitar un sabor amargo de las hojas de té verde) y vuelva a verter la líquido original, junto con el azúcar y la menta fresca. Hierva hasta que se disuelva el azúcar. Fácil.

A continuación, preparamos un tajine vegetariano, friendo las cebollas para la base, luego cortando zanahorias y nabos, terminando con una capa de papas encima. Aprendemos a esculpir una rosa de una gran tomate. Con una intensa concentración, pelamos una larga tira de piel del fruto y la enrollamos hasta que se asemeja a una flor, sus bordes irregulares recordando pétalos carnosos rojos. Mientras nuestros tajines se cocinan suavemente a fuego lento en la cocina, Maryam nos lleva a dar un breve paseo por el zoco.

Aún estamos aturridos ligeramente por tres noches en Marrakech y su alboroto habitual de ruido, calor y actividad. Essaouira es un mundo aparte, un pueblo blanqueado de edificios, persianas de color cobalto y botes de pesca. El zoco aquí es un asunto más pequeño y relajado y durante nuestra estadía hay más gatos que turistas. Hasta 3.000 según las últimas estimaciones, haciendo lo mejor de las capturas diarias de pescado. Dondequiera que miremos, están allí, acurrucados en cajas y en los umbrales, estirados en alféizares de ventanas.

Seguimos a nuestra guía a una tienda de especias detrás del mercado de pescado propiedad de Mohamed Seddiki, un experto en medicina herbal que ha estado practicando aquí toda su vida. Estantes de piso a techo repletos de todas las hierbas posibles en antiguos frascos y tarros. Los clientes vienen aquí a comprar especias para su cocina, pero también remedios herbales para afecciones comunes, desde migrañas hasta menopausia.

En Le Jardin des Douars, donde nos hospedamos, ha parado de llover y finalmente ha salido el sol. Con vistas al río Oued Ksob en las colinas de Essaouira, es encantadoramente apartado pero solo 15 minutos en autobús desde la playa y la medina. Construido en estilo tradicional marroquí, es un laberinto de patios repletos de plantas y jardines botánicos lujosos. Es casi demasiado fácil pasar el día aquí con sus dos piscinas verde esmeralda, tenis de mesa y bar al aire libre.

Nuestra habitación es espaciosa y elegante, una mezcla de viejo y nuevo con alfombras bereberes, escultura marroquí y azulejos tradicionales Zellige. Ventanas francesas que dan a una amplia terraza con vistas panorámicas a los jardines y colinas más allá.

El verdadero placer, sin embargo, es un paseo antes del atardecer a través de los jardines botánicos llenos de cactus gigantes, palmeras y suculentas. Paseando por los terrenos, mi hija también avista algunas tortugas, ranas y camaleones residentes. El bufé de desayuno cada mañana de crepes marroquíes, café y huevos revueltos es otra delicia y hay un menú de mariscos en las noches, incluyendo calamar salteado, gravlax de salmón, risotto de langosta y ostras marroquíes de Dakhla.

Cuando finalmente logramos despegarnos, nos sentimos atraídos por los callejones retorcidos de la medina, que puede que no sea tan grande como Marrakech, pero la variedad es impresionante. Además de las alfombras y los bienes de cuero habituales, hay también un barrio de arte y una joyería souk. La tienda conceptual contemporánea L'Atelier es grande para los artículos para el hogar y Histoire de Filles está llena de vestidos lindos, pañuelos y joyas. También hay una escena de café animada: el Mandala Society es genial para el almuerzo, su buddha bowl vegano y falafel son altamente recomendables, al igual que el lenguado al horno en costra de sal en La Table de Madada.

Sin embargo, nada supera sentarse en el área de comedor de L'Atelier, comiendo tu propio tajine de verduras recién cocido, adornado con una rosa, y acompañado de un vaso de vino local.

B&B en Les Jardin Des Douars cuesta desde £140 por habitación (jardindesdouars.com). Para obtener más detalles sobre clases de cocina y talleres de pastelería en L'Atelier Madada, visite sportingbet ayuda
